ABSTRACT

The Educational Resources Information Center (ERIC) Clearinghouse on Information Resources provides an annotated bibliography of books and documents reviewed by the Clearinghouse but not included in "Resources in Education." Author, title, bibliographic data, and a brief annotation are given for each item. Entries are arranged by subject. Topics covered include bibliographies, children's books, computer and information science, media, library science, publishing, telecommunications, and teaching. (LS)

* Documents acquired by ERIC include many informal unpublished *
* materials not available from other sources. ERIC makes every effort * * to obtain the best copy available. Nevertheless, items of marginal *
* reproducibility are often encountered and this affects the quality * * of the microfiche and hardcopy reproductions ERIC makes available *
* via the ERIC Document Reproduction Service (EDRS). EDRS is not * * responsible for the quality of the original document. Reproductions * * supplied by EDRS are the best that can be made from the original. *

PREFACE

This Simple Alerting Service Bibliography is intended as a timely update for ERIC users who request the publication by mailing the Clearinghouse a self-addressed, stamped (first class) 9 by 12 inch manila envelope.

This bibliography includes books sent to the Clearinghouse for processing and review, but which are not applicable for inclusion in Resources in Education, ERIC's regular monthly catalog.

Listing these books does not imply a recommendation of them. All books deal in some way with libraries or media, but may not necessarily stress educational aspects of these fields. Books are arranged by major subject area.

Funded under Grant No. NIE-C-74-0027.

BIBLIOGRAPHIES

Filby, P. William, comp.

American and British Genealogy and Heraldry: A Selected List of Books. 2nd edition. Chicago: American Library Association, 1975. 467p. $25.00.

More than 5,200 titles in genealogy and heraldry are fully annotated to be a useful checklist for researchers and librarians building genealogy collections.

Harmon, Robert B.

Political Science Bibliographies. Volume II. Metuchen, New Jersey: Scarecrow Press, 1976. 243p. $9.00.

A total of 913 bibliographies--all separately published works--are included, with some brief annotations.

Jenkins, Betty Lanier, and Susan Phillis, comps.

Black Separatism: a Bibliography. Westport, Connecticut: Greenwood Press, 1976. 163p. $11.00.

Under the auspices of the Metropolitan Applied Research Center, the authors compiled an annotated bibliography documenting the antecedents and current status of the black separatism controversy in the United States.

O'Hara, Frederic.

An Information and Referral Bibliography. Brookville, New York: Long Island University, Palmer Graduate Library School, 1975. 30p. $2.00.

In a jocular fashion, the author has compiled "a partial, incomplete, unfinished, non-terminal, preliminary bibliography of reference and other materials for the librarian and patron." The list touches subjects ranging from children's rights to health or medicine.

CHILDREN'S BOOKS

Bader, Barbara.

American Picturebooks from Noah's Ark to the Beast Within. New York: Macmillan, 1976. 615p. $45.00.

This historical study of children's picturebooks relates the careers of numerous artists and writers, documents the influence of social trends and the effects of technological change, and gives special attention to photographic and informational books. Nearly 700 illustrations accompany the text.

Bold, Clarendon.

Children's Book Art. Houston, Texas: Contemporary Arts Museum, 1975. 41p. $3.00.

An exhibition of the Art of Children's Literature, produced by the Contemporary Arts Museum and Associated Authors of Children's Literature, is presented as a synthesis of words, pictures, and dialogue between the artists--authors and illustrators--and children.

Fox, Geoff, Graham Hammond, Terry Jones, Frederic Smith, and Kenneth Sterck, eds.

Writers, Critics, and Children. New York: Agathon Press, 1976. 245p. $12.00.

Comprised of articles from Children's Literature in Education, this book discusses the role of reading and literature in the lives of children and adolescents.

Haviland, Virginia, comp.

Children's Reading in America 1776. Washington, D.C.: Library of Congress, 1976. 12p. Free.

This list of primers, stories, rhymes, and other reading matter available to American children in 1776 includes both items published on this side of the Atlantic and works issued abroad and sold here as imports.

Tarbert, Gary C., ed.

Children's Book Review Index: 1975 Cumulation. Detroit, Michigan: Gale Research Company, 1976. 254p. $18.00.

Review citations of children's books from the three periodical issues of CBRI for 1975 are cumulated, including all reviews of children's books that appear in any of the 255 periodicals indexed in Book Review Index.

DATA BASES

Harmon, Margaret.

Stretching Man's Mind: A History of Data Processing. New York: Mason/Charter, 1975. 239p. $8.95.

The evolution of calculating devices is traced along with the principles and mechanisms involved and the men who created them. The book is designed to develop a humanistic approach to the concept of the computer.

Sundgren, Bo.

Theory of Data Bases. New York: Petrocelli/Charter, 1975. 244p. $19.95.

The author presents a general data base theory, explains the different motives for such a theory, and develops an integrated theoretical approach for the design of large-scale data bases.
